Provided that in case there is no applicant for a particular category, the prescribed quota of that category shall be equally distributed amongst the categories where the number of applicant is more than the available quota of that category.

PART 2

Allotment Procedure

7. Application for Allotment of residential accommodation.ð

(i) Every employee on joining duty on his first appointment or on transfer, or any other non-employee applicant may make an application online or manually to the Commissioner, Municipal Corporation for allotment of accommodation to which he is eligible under these Bye-laws and the entitled type of accommodation shall be offered as per the priority in accordance with these Bye-laws having regard to the allotteeôs preference :

Provided that no application shall be entertained for accommodation if the employee is retiring on superannuation in the next six months.

(ii) The applicant shall furnish particulars in the form specified by the Commissioner which shall be verified by a Municipal Corporation officer and in case of any discrepancy in the application or furnishing of incorrect information in the application, the applicant and the verifying officer shall be liable for furnishing of incorrect information and disciplinary action shall be taken against them including cancellation of allotment of accommodation, if allotment was made based on incorrect information.

8. Residential Allotment Committee.ð The Corporation shall constitute a residential Allotment committee comprising Commissioner, concerned Joint Municipal Commissioner, Chief Accounts Officer, Engineer In-charge of Engineering section and any other officer which the Corporation deems necessary for the purpose of allotment of residential accommodation. The Allotment Committee shall also determine the monthly license fee to be levied to the employees of the Corporations/Government. Further it shall also work out market rate of license fee based on location, area, type etc. of the residential accommodation to be levied under the provisions of these Bye-laws and special license fee for temporary allotment of accommodation for marriage or social purposes

9. Officer of allotment of accommodation.ð

(i) Save as otherwise provided in these Bye-laws, accommodation falling vacant in all types will be allotted by the Allotment Committee to the applicant applying for initial allotment or for change of accommodation from the waiting list for that type of accommodation under these Bye-laws ;

(ii) The Committee may, in emergent, circumstances where the accommodation in occupation of the allottee is required to be vacated, allot him an alternate accommodation of the same type of accommodation or the type next below the type of accommodation in occupation of the allottee, subject to availability.

10. Period for which allotment subsists.ð

(i) An allotment shall be effective from the date on which it is accepted by the allottee and shall continue for the period mentioned in the agreement ; which shall normally be one year ;

(ii) Subject to the Clause 19 of these Bye-laws, the agreement shall be deemed to have been expired after the allottee ceases to be on duty in the Corporation if ;

a. It is cancelled by the Commissioner or is deemed to have been cancelled under any provision of these Bye-laws ;

b. it is surrendered by the allottee or the allottee ceases to occupy the residence ;

c. The allottee has been transferred from the corporation to his/her parent department or in any other department.

11. Acceptance of Allotment.ð

(i) An offer of allotment of an accommodation shall be accepted by the allottee within eight days from the date of allotment of the accommodation ;

(ii) The allottee may accept the allotment of the accommodation by himself or through an authorized representative.

12. Process after Acceptance.ð

(i) After acceptance of the allotted accommodation, the allottee shall take physical possession of the accommodation from the Municipal Corporation or from any other maintenance agency, as the case may be, within five working days from the date of receipt of the acceptance letter and the Municipal Corporation or any other maintenance agency, as the case may be, shall hand over the allotted accommodation to the allottee ;

(ii) In case the allotted accommodation is not ready for immediate occupation, Municipal Corporation shall issue a Technical Occupation Report to the allottee on receipt of authority letter from the Committee/Corporation ;

(iii) The Municipal Corporation shall issue a Physical Occupation Report to the allottee once the accommodation is ready for occupation and after handing over the accommodation to the allottee in habitable condition.

13. Non-acceptance of allotment or offer or failure to occupy the allotted accommodation after acceptance.ð

(i) If any allottee fails to accept the allotment of a residential accommodation within 8 days from the date of allotment of the said accommodation, or fails to take possession of that accommodation within five working days from the date of receipt of the letter of authorization, he shall be debarred to apply for accommodation for a period of 1 year from the date of non-acceptance of allotment ;

(ii) The date of non-acceptance of allotment shall be calculated from the date of allotment ;

(iii) If an allottee occupying a lower type of accommodation refuses to accept the offer of an accommodation of the type for which he is eligible under these Bye-laws, he shall be permitted to continue in the previously allotted accommodation :

Provided that such allottee shall not be eligible for another allotment for a period of six months from the date of non-acceptance of such allotment.

14. Reconsideration.ð Request for reconsideration in cases of non-acceptance of allotment within the specified time shall be considered by the Municipal Corporation if an application for reconsideration is made to the Allotment Committee in the following cases :ð

(i) intervening Gazetted holidays during the eight days period ;

(ii) delay in forwarding of prescribed acceptance form from the office concerned ;

(iii) the allottee on official tour during the acceptance period ;

(iv) other valid reasons provided by the allottee ;

(v) the allotted accommodation is occupied by another allottee ;

(vi) the allottee is unwilling to pay the pending dues of the previous occupants relating to electricity or water, etc.

15. Allotment to an allottee under suspension.ð Subject to the provision of these Bye-laws allotment of accommodation to an allottee under suspension shall be made as if suspension has not taken place.

16. Allotment of accommodation on unsafe or dangerous grounds.ð

(i) An allottee whose residential accommodation is unsafe or dangerous/unhabitable, may make an application to the Corporation to declare such accommodation as unsafe or dangerous for living and an officer not below the rank of an Executive Engineer or equivalent officer in Corporation satisfying himself that the accommodation concerned is unsafe or dangerous, issue a certificate of declaration to the effect, in writing and enter the accommodation in the Unsafe Accommodation Register ;

(ii) In cases where a residential accommodation is declared as unsafe or dangerous, an alternate allotment of same type of accommodation shall be made on priority by identifying, vacant accommodation in the same locality or nearby locality for allotment and such occupants would be given priority in the same type of accommodation over the waiting list :

17. Allotment to husband and wife.ð

(i) No officer/employees shall be allotted residential accommodation under these Bye-laws if the wife or husband as the case may be has already been allotted a residential accommodation unless such accommodation is surrendered :

Provided that this clause shall not apply where the husband and wife are residing separately in pursuance ofð

a. An order of judicial separation made by any Court ; or

b. an order to proceed to frame and record the issues for settlement of the proceedings by any Court in which a petition filed by either spouse for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce is pending and either of them has furnished an undertaking to surrender the accommodation allotted to her or him forthwith in case of revival of conjugal rights with her or his spouse.

(ii) Where two allottees in occupation of separate residences allotted under these Bye-laws marry each other they shall, within one month of the marriage surrender one of the residences ;

(iii) If one of the accommodation is not surrendered as required under clause (ii), the allotment of the residential accommodation of the lower type shall be deemed to have been cancelled on expiry of such period and if the residences are of the same type, the allotment of one of them, as the Municipal Corporation may decide, shall be deemed to have been cancelled on the expiry of such period.

18. Temporary allotment of accommodation for marriage or social functions.ð The temporary allotment of vacant or surplus residential accommodation for marriage or social purposes shall be governed by the guidelines issued by the Corporation from time to time. Such temporary allotments shall be levied special license fee notified by the Corporation.

PART 3

Retention of Accommodation

19. Concessional period of retention .ð

(i) The allottee may, subject to the conditions laid down in these Bye-laws, be permitted to retain the accommodation on the happening of any of the events specified in column (2) of the table below, for the period specified in the corresponding entry in column (3) thereof, provided that the accommodation is required for the bona fide use of the allottee or members of his family :ð

2	Retirement, voluntary retirement, retirement on medical grounds or repatriation to parent organization.	Three months on normal license fee
3	Death of the allottee : To eligible spouse or ward in case of death of the allottee or in case of missing persons (from the date on which Police authority have certified the employee missing)	Twelve months on normal license fee provided the deceased or missing allottee or any member of the family does not own a house at the place of occupation of accommodation
4	Transfer to a place outside territorial of the Corporation	Two months on normal area license fee plus six months on double license fee
5	Transfer outside the Union Territory	Three months on normal license fee
6	All authorized and sanctioned Leave	For the full period of leave
7	Allottee other than Corporation/ Government employee	Fifteen days after expiry of the period of allotment on normal license fee

Explanation :ï During the extended retention as provided above, the concerned allottee shall be charged normal license fee except otherwise provided, and in no circumstances there shall be concession or relaxation at the cost of corporation ex-chequer. However, further retention of the residential accommodation till vacation shall invite damages at the market rates of the license fee as assessed by the Allotment Committee, plus 10% compound interest on monthly basis, in addition to other necessary steps for eviction.

(ii) All allottees of the residential accommodation shall furnish a self-certificate to the Commissioner in case they are on leave for more than six months and retention of accommodation is required for family.

20. Retention of residential accommodation by the employee .ð

(i) Corporation employees can retain their allotted residential accommodation on deputation to outside the Corporation on proper application and retention orders thereof issued by the Corporation provided that such accommodation is to be used by their families for study of their children or for a bona fide reason to be mentioned in the application form duly supported by affidavit attested by the Judicial Magistrate of territorial jurisdiction of Jammu/Srinagar Courts only ;

(ii) Any employee who has retained the residential accommodation after proper retention order, if found having sublet the accommodation to some other person shall invite eviction proceedings and his allotment shall be deemed to have been cancelled. No further allotment of residential accommodation shall be made in his favour ;

(iii) The officer/employee who does not retain accommodation shall handover the possession of the residential accommodation to the Corporation against proper receipt. If the residential accommodation is kept locked by the allottee, the license fee for the period the residential accommodation is kept locked shall be borne by him. Further, retention of the residential accommodation beyond permissible time till vacation shall be charged with market rates of the rent as assessed by the Allotment Committee, plus 10% compound interest on monthly basis.

PART 4

Licence Fee for Accommodation

21. Payment of licence fee for residential accommodation.—

(i) The normal rate of license fee shall be notified by the Corporation on the recommendation of the Allotment Committee ;

(ii) The market rate of license fee shall also be notified by the Corporation on the recommendation of the Allotment Committee. The market rate in addition to other factors should also take into account the market rate, location, type, area etc. of the accommodation. Similarly, special license fee for temporary allotment shall also be notified by the Corporation on the recommendations of the Allotment Committee ;

(iii) Where allotment of accommodation or alternative accommodation has been accepted, the liability for license fee shall commence from the date of physical occupation of the accommodation ;

(iv) An allottee who, after acceptance, fails to take possession of that accommodation within eight days from the date of receipt of the authority letter shall be charged one month license fee from the date of allotment ;

(v) Provided that this provision shall not apply in case the maintenance agency does not hand over the accommodation in a habitable condition to the allottee within the prescribed period or the accommodation is not ready for physical occupation for any other reason ;

(vi) An allottee shall remain personally responsible for any license fee payable in respect of the accommodation and for any damages caused to the accommodation or its precincts or grounds or services provided therein by the Government beyond fair wear and tear ;

(vii) In case license fee has not been received continuously for a period of four months from an allottee or the Drawing and Disbursing Officer of Office of the allottee, the allotment of accommodation of the concerned allottee shall be cancelled ;

(viii) Any employee who has been allotted residential accommodation shall not be paid HRA.

22. Fixation or revision of license fee for accommodations.— The Allotment Committee shall revise normal, market and special rates of the license fee for residential accommodation every three years, separately for each type of accommodation. The revised rates shall take effect from the 1st April of the year in which the revision is due, or from such other date as Government may direct.

23. Charging of License Fees.—

(i) The Govt. officers/employees other than Corporation officers/ employees on deputation from other departments to Municipal Corporation shall pay the same license fee as the corporation employee ;

(ii) The Category of occupants of Corporation residential accommodation who are neither Government employees nor Corporation employee and have been allotted Corporation accommodation under proper allotment orders, shall have to pay the rent as per market rate as may be fixed by the Corporation on the recommendations of the Allotment Committee ;

(iii) The liability for payment of license fee shall commence from the date of handover ;

(iv) Where an officer/employee who is in occupation of a residential accommodation is allotted another residential accommodation and he occupies the new residential accommodation, the allotment of the former residence shall be deemed to have been cancelled from the date of occupation of the new residential accommodation. He may, however, retain the former residential accommodation without payment of license fee for that day and the subsequent day for shifting. If the former residential accommodation is not vacated by the subsequent date as aforesaid, the officer/employees will be liable to pay charges for use and occupation of the residential accommodation at market rates plus 10% compound interest with effect from the date they are taking possession of the later residential accommodation.

24. *Personal liability of the occupant for payment of license fee till the residential accommodation is vacated.*ð The allottee to whom a residential accommodation has been allotted shall be personally liable for the license fee thereon and for any damage beyond fair wear and tear caused thereto to the Corporation property during the period for which the residential accommodation has been and remains allotted to him/her or where the allotment has been cancelled under any of the provisions of these Bye-laws until the residence along with out-houses and apartments have been vacated and vacant possession has been restored to the Corporation.

25. Payment of license fee in advance for retention of accommodation.ð All the allottees of accommodation shall pay the requisite license fee in advance for retention of the accommodation allotted to them.

26. Special license fee for temporary allotment of accommodation.ð The rates of special licence fee to be charged for temporary allotment of accommodation may be notified by the Corporation from time to time on the recommendations of the allotment Committee.

27. Recovery of license fee from allottee in instalments in certain cases.ð

(i) The request for recovery of arrears of license fee in instalments may be considered only in deserving cases from an allottee subject to the condition that the allottee agrees to pay twenty per cent of the dues in lump sum in advance. The balance may be recovered in equated monthly instalments. The instalments should commensurate with the allotment period specified in the agreement, and in no case should exceed it. The instalment shall be levied interest rate applicable to the General Provident Fund for the relevant period :

Provided further that the allottee shall furnish surety from a permanent Government employee who may not retire on superannuation before the total amount is recovered and in case, the surety takes voluntary retirement or die in harness or leave service otherwise, the concerned employee shall make arrangements for other surety ;

(ii) In case the allottee is an employee and a victim of any calamity natural or otherwise, the portion of outstanding dues not realised or recovered till then shall be adjusted from the gratuity payable to him.

PART 5

Change of Accommodation

28. *Change in same type or entitled higher type of accommodation.*ð

(i) An allottee to whom an accommodation has been allotted under these Bye-laws may apply for a change to another same type of accommodation only after taking physical possession of accommodation allotted under initial allotment ;

(ii) Only one change shall be allowed in the same type of accommodation to the allottee ;

(iii) An allottee, who intends to change the accommodation already allotted to him shall make an application to the Commissioner, and thereafter, the name of such allottee shall be included in the concerned type unified waiting list ;

(iv) The change of same type of accommodation shall be offered as per the priority in accordance with these Bye-laws and having regard to the allotteeôs preference :

Provided that no change in the same type of accommodation shall be allowed to an employee who is retiring on superannuation within six months ;

(v) If an allottee fails to accept a change of accommodation offered to him within eight days of the issue of such offer or allotment, he shall not be considered again for a change of accommodation for that type of accommodation ;

(vi) An allottee, who, after accepting a change of accommodation fails to take possession of the same, shall be charged one month license fee for such accommodation in accordance with the provisions of these Bye-laws in addition to the normal license fee for the accommodation already in his possession the allotment of which shall continue to subsist :

Provided that if the Corporation fails to make the accommodation offered on change habitable within the prescribed time period, a certificate from the concerned Executive Engineer shall be furnished in this regard by Corporation and allottees will be exempted from payment of license fee for the intervening period in such cases ;

(vii) The allottee shall ensure before applying for change of accommodation that he continues to be entitled for that type of accommodation on the basis of revised entitlement as well as other conditions governing such change of accommodation and the Corporation shall verify this fact before accepting the prescribed acceptance form of the applicant ;

(viii) No change of accommodation shall be allowed to an allottee under this Clause if an enquiry is under progress against the allottee on the charge of subletting.

29. Change of accommodation on medical grounds.ð Requests for change on medical grounds may be entertained only in such cases where the allottee or a member of his family living with him, after the allotment of the accommodation has developed a disease necessitating change of accommodation :

Provided that a medical certificate from a Head of Department of the Specialty of concerned disease of a Government Hospital indicating the nature and extent of physical handicap or disease and recommending such a change is furnished.

PART 6

Surrender of Allotment of Accommodation

30. Surrender of an allotment and period of notice.ð

(i) An allottee may surrender an allotment of accommodation at any time during the allotment period by giving intimation to the Corporation at least five days before the date of vacation of the residential accommodation. The allotment shall be deemed to be cancelled with effect from the sixth day after the day on which the letter is received by the Municipal Corporation or the date specified in the letter whichever is later. THE NEW DELHI INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTRE ACT, 2019

(Act No. 17 of 2019)

[26th July, 2019.]

An Act to provide for the establishment and incorporation of the New Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the purpose of creating an independent and autonomous regime for institutionalised arbitration and for acquisition and transfer of the undertakings of the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution and to vest such undertakings in the New Delhi International Arbitration Centre for the better management of arbitration so as to make it a hub for institutional arbitration and to declare the New Delhi International Arbitration Centre to be an institution of national importance and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

WHEREAS, dispute resolution process has a huge impact on the Indian economy and global perception on doing business in our country and it has become necessary to inspire confidence and credibility among the litigants of commercial disputes ;

AND WHEREAS, rapidly changing economic activity demands expeditious settlement of disputes and creation and establishment of institutional arbitration ;

AND WHEREAS, the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution was set up in the year 1995, under the aegis of the Central Government and registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860) with the objective of promoting alternative dispute resolution mechanism and providing facilities for the same ;

AND WHEREAS, the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution has received land and substantial funding by way of grants and other benefits from the Central Government for constructing infrastructure and making other facilities ;

AND WHEREAS, the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution has not been able to actively engage and embrace developments in the arbitration ecosystem and to create a reputation par excellence keeping pace with the dynamic nature of arbitration over more than two decades ;

AND WHEREAS, studies conducted by the High Level Committee appointed by the Central Government indicate that the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution has failed to address the growing needs of the institutional arbitration and also to bear optimum caseload and to become better choice to the parties for arbitration ;

AND WHEREAS, it has become expedient to take over the undertakings of the International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution including its regional offices without interfering with its activities and without adversely affecting its character as a Society but to utilise its existing infrastructure and other facilities which have been set up by using the public funds provided by the Government and to incorporate a robust institution for domestic and international arbitration to be known as the New Delhi International Arbitration Centre ;

AND WHEREAS, it is considered necessary to declare the New Delhi International Arbitration Centre as an institution of national importance for its overall development as a major arbitration hub by promoting quick and efficient dispute resolution mechanism.

THE INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY CODE (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2019

(Act No. 26 of 2019)

[5th August, 2019.]

An Act further to amend the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventieth Year of the Republic of India as follows :ð

1. *Short title and commencement.*ð (1) This Act may be called the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Amendment) Act, 2019.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Amendment of section 5.—In section 5 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (31 of 2016) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in clause (26), the following Explanation shall be inserted, namely :ð

ñ*Explanation.*—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that a resolution plan may include provisions for the restructuring of the corporate debtor, including by way of merger, amalgamation and demerger.ò.

3. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act, in sub-section (4), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :ð

ñProvided that if the Adjudicating Authority has not ascertained the existence of default and passed an order under sub-section (5) within such time, it shall record its reasons in writing for the same.ò.

4. Amendment of section 12.—In section 12 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), after the proviso, the following provisos shall be inserted, namely :ï ï ñProvided further that the corporate insolvency resolution process shall mandatorily be completed within a period of three hundred and thirty days from the insolvency commencement date, including any extension of the period of corporate insolvency resolution process granted under this section and the time taken in legal proceedings in relation to such resolution process of the corporate debtor :

Provided also that where the insolvency resolution process of a corporate debtor is pending and has not been completed within the period referred to in the second proviso, such resolution process shall be completed within a period of ninety days from the date of commencement of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Amendment) Act, 2019.ò.

5. Amendment of section 25A.—In section 25A of the principal Act, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :

ñ(3A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-section (3), the authorised representative under sub-section (6A) of section 21 shall cast his vote on behalf of all the financial creditors he represents in accordance with the decision taken by a vote of more than fifty per cent, of the voting share of the financial creditors he represents, who have cast their vote :

Provided that for a vote to be cast in respect of an application under section 12A, the authorised representative shall cast his vote in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3).ò.

6. Amendment of section 30.—In section 30 of the principal Act,

(a) in sub-section (2), for clause (b), the following shall be substituted, namely :

ñ(b) provides for the payment of debts of operational creditors in such manner as may be specified by the Board which shall not be less than

(i) the amount to be paid to such creditors in the event of a liquidation of the corporate debtor under section 53 ; or

(ii) the amount that would have been paid to such creditors, if the amount to be distributed under the resolution plan had been distributed in accordance with the order of priority in sub-section (1) of section 53, whichever is higher, and provides for the payment of debts of financial creditors, who do not vote in favour of the resolution plan, in such manner as may be specified by the Board, which shall not be less than the amount to be paid to such creditors in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 53 in the event of a liquidation of the corporate debtor.

Explanation 1.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that a distribution in accordance with the provisions of this clause shall be fair and equitable to such creditors.

Explanation 2.—For the purposes of this clause, it is hereby declared that on and from the date of commencement of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Amendment) Act, 2019, the provisions of this clause shall also apply to the corporate insolvency resolution process of a corporate debtorï ï

(i) where a resolution plan has not been approved or rejected by the Adjudicating Authority ;

(ii) where an appeal has been preferred under section 61 or section 62 or such an appeal is not time barred under any provision of law for the time being in force ; or

(iii) where a legal proceeding has been initiated in any court against the decision of the Adjudicating Authority in respect of a resolution plan;ò;

(b) in sub-section (4), after the words ñfeasibility and viability,ò, the words, brackets and figures ñthe manner of distribution proposed, which may take into account the order of priority amongst creditors as laid down in sub-section (1) of section 53, including the priority and value of the security interest of a secured creditorò shall be inserted.

7. Amendment of section 31.—In section 31 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), after the words ñmembers, creditors,ò, the words ñincluding the Central Government, any State Government or any local authority to whom a debt in respect of the payment of dues arising under any law for the time being in force, such as authorities to whom statutory dues are owed,ò shall be inserted.
